

BASIC ELEMENTS OF THE ASSIGNMENT

The independent academic assignment is a study of an academically relevant problem using the theories and methods of the subject area. In other words, academic assignments are studies, and academic studies contain analyses. But to conduct an analysis, you need to have an overview of the basic elements of your assignment. An independent assignment must display coherence between the elements, and the analysis occurs in the encounter between elements 3 and 4.

