

WRITE A DRAFT ANALYSIS

Try writing a draft for your assignment analysis by completing the sentences below. Completing the sentences does not mean that you should not write other or more sentences or that you are not allowed to rephrase. The sentences are just meant as a help for you to start writing as you typically would in an analysis section

Analysis introduction

In the assignment I will answer the following problem statement...

In this analysis I intend to.... in order to answer the problem statement

In my empirical data many elements seem to be interesting, however in this analysis I shall concentrate on....

The analysis is structured in a way that....

In this part of my analysis I shall... The purpose of this is...

By using concept X and concept Y, I will achieve....The actual analysis

In order to start focusing on... I shall ...

In this part of my empirical data it appears that...

This is particularly evident from this selected quote, which shows....

I will characterise this as follows using concept X.... By including concept Y, I would argue that...

It becomes evident in my analysis that ...

Ending the analysis/section

From the above I conclude that....

For an overall understanding of my empirical data this means that... My analysis did not focus on... because...